Two-Year Limited-term Lecturer Position

Position # 002287LT24-2021-HK

The University of Windsor’s Department of Kinesiology in the Faculty of Human Kinetics invites applications for a two-year Limited-Term faculty position as a Laboratory Instructor at the rank of Lecturer, commencing July 1, 2021. This position is subject to final budgetary approval.

A medium-sized university with a solid reputation in teaching and research, the University of Windsor offers a friendly and supportive environment for both living and learning. It is Canada’s southernmost university and its location on the Canada-US border provides unique cultural, recreational and educational opportunities for faculty and students.

The successful candidate will be appointed to the Faculty of Human Kinetics. The Faculty comprises two program areas, namely the Department of Kinesiology and the Division of Athletics and Recreational Services. The Department of Kinesiology offers both undergraduate and graduate degrees with approximately 800 undergraduate and over 80 graduate students. Vibrant research and teaching cultures within Kinesiology facilitate high quality, student-centred learning experiences which are supported by state-of-the-art facilities. At the undergraduate level, students take a variety of courses related to our two major areas: Kinesiology - Movement Science or Sport Management and Leadership. Graduate students can complete their program of study in either Applied Human Performance or Sport Management through a thesis or internship route at the Master’s level and in Kinesiology at the Doctoral level. For more information about the Department of Kinesiology, visit our website at http://www.uwindsor.ca/kinesiology.

The ideal candidate will hold a Masters Degree in Kinesiology or a related field. The candidate will be expected to have expertise in the areas of Human & Exercise Physiology (e.g., Body Composition, Heart Rate and Blood Pressure, ECG, Spirometry, Anaerobic and Aerobic [MVO2] Power); Biomechanics & Ergonomics (e.g., Anthropometry, Force Platform Data Analysis, Gait, Model Comparisons, EMG); and Motor Learning & Psychology (e.g., Anxiety, Imagery, Group Dynamics, Reaction and Movement Time, Fitts Law, and Movement Planning). Proficiency with equipment and software used to measure Body Composition, Blood Pressure, ECG, MVO2, Spirometry, Anaerobic Power, Force, Gait, Kinematics (Motion Capture), EMG, Biofeedback, Fitts Law, and Generic Data Acquisition will be required. Familiarity with and experience using online teaching platforms (e.g., Blackboard, Microsoft Teams, and Microsoft Stream) is highly desired. The successful candidate will be expected to teach subject content in-person and/or virtually, demonstrate the use of the equipment, collect and analyze data, and provide feedback to students on the aforementioned topics.

Application Requirements

- a letter of application, including a statement of citizenship/immigration status;
- a detailed and current curriculum vitae;
- a teaching dossier or portfolio demonstrating potential for or evidence of teaching effectiveness and excellence that will include sample course syllabi/outlines, teaching evaluations, and a statement of teaching philosophy and interests (resources and templates for completing a teaching dossier can be found at https://www.uwindsor.ca/ctl/390/teaching-and-learning-resources);
- graduate transcripts; and
- the names and contact details of three (3) academic referees.

Only those applicants in support of their applications. To ensure full consideration, complete an online application (http://www.uwindsor.ca/facultypositions) found on the job advertisement, and ensure letters of reference are submitted by the deadline date of February 26, 2021. Applications may be considered after the deadline date; however, acceptance of late submissions is at the discretion of the appointments committee.
