DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN KINETICS

PART TIME INSTRUCTOR: Motor Control and Learning

The Department of Human Kinetics invites applications for a Part-Time Instructor to teach 6 credits (2 courses) for the 2021-2022 academic year virtually. The ideal candidate should possess at minimum a Master's degree in Kinesiology or related field, must demonstrate a record of effective oral and written communication skills, should have previous teaching experience in motor control and learning, and possess online teaching experience. Candidates must be committed to contributing to StFX’s priorities of equity, diversity, and inclusion. Demonstrated ability in fostering a climate of inclusion in the classroom is an asset.

The duties of the Part-Time instructor will include teaching: Introduction to Motor Control and Learning. The course is required for all sophomore Human Kinetics students and will be offered in the fall and winter terms. The Part-Time Instructor will also be expected to collaborate with the course Lab Instructor. Labs will be offered in-person on campus.

Applicants should provide a cover letter, curriculum vitae, and the names, addresses (including email), and telephone numbers of three references. Applications should be sent electronically to:
